SAE Student Production: Crew Contract

This agreement must be printed and then filled out by the Producer. It should then be signed by both the Crew Member and the Student Producer.

This is an agreement between Nawal Qaddoumi (Crew Member) of nnqmedia@gmail.com (Address) and Sanaaya Rohra (Student Producer).

1. It is hereby understood that Nawal Qaddoumi (Crew Member) agrees to work on the student production In the Shadows of her Footsteps (Title) in the capacity of BTS (Crew role(s).

2. The Crew Member undertakes to be available for the duration of the shoot and the dates and times indicated at the shooting schedules and/or call sheets.

3. The Crew Member undertakes to comply with reasonable requests in respect of the health and safety of people and security and safety of equipment. Any damage to equipment is shared with other students as per SAE guidelines. Any damage or suspected damage to equipment must be reported to the Student Producer immediately.

4. No monetary payment will be provided for this work.

5. The Crew Member will be given proper tea and meal breaks.

6. All expenses relating to the student production must be approved prior by the Producer of the project.

7. The Producer undertakes to provide a tail credit for the Crew Member as:

Nawal Qaddoumi / BTS (Crew Member Name & Role(s)

8. Should the student production receive substantial monetary sales after completion subsequent to this agreement, the Student Producer will renegotiate the financial conditions of this agreement in consultation with SAE management.

9. Both parties undertake to comply with the SAE Filmmaking Degree Guidelines.

10. The Crew Member waives all moral or other similar rights in respect of the production and the work that the Crew Member may be entitled to under the laws of any and all jurisdictions throughout the world in perpetuity.

Signed / Print Name

(Crew Member)

Sanaaya Rohra

(Student Producer)

Date: 25 / 10 / 19

Act 1,2 & 3 : Look Where Being Arrogant Got You

Jason, an over-confident arrogant guy, finds himself trapped in the school with four of his friend after he gets a phone call from the delivery man saying he can't get in. Jason searches through the school to find one of the workers to help him. He decides to check the Janitors closet for him to help him. As Jason enters he finds himself in shock taking a couple of seconds to process what's going on. He runs so fast he couldn't catch his breath. Jason screams so loudly that he started to hear his voice echo.

Jason returned to his friends in shock, to find them acting odd. Jason takes lead in all of this; telling them that the four of them; Noah, Clara, Hazel, and Ella. Should go in two's and try finding help to get out of this school. He then pauses for a second and explains to His friends that what he saw which was shocking; That the moment he saw the Janitor all bloody and laid dead on the ground, played over and over again in his head. As Jason was about to leave the room he looks at his friends, smiling as if it were his last time to see them. Now that Jason was out he had to find a way out of school. He scanned the halls running as if he knew he was going to get out. Jason now was walking slower since it's been half an hour and he hasn't found anyone yet. As he walked the last halls of this strange school, Jason finds a very odd, unusual classroom, it was empty; No chairs, No door, and No tables... Nothing but an old odd-looking closet. As unwise and reckless as Jason was... He decided to check the closet out; which has red and black strings stuck on it. As soon as his dull fingers touched the slippery handle his whole body shivered and his eyeballs glimpsed at one another causing him to feel dizzy and accidentally trip and fall into the closet.

As his body was trapped in the closet, Jason found himself being sucked into a loop hall and dropped down onto the school field. Jason gets up all dizzy and decides to try to find a way out. He finds a path that may lead out of school, so he takes it, later on Jason finds himself in the school's swimming pool. Where he finds a bunch of stuffed animal laying around the pool. Jason laughs because of the fact that they're randomly just on the floor. Seconds later, Jason is interrupted by his friends whom are filled with blood and walking slowly towards him. Jason takes a big swallow and blinks twice, quickly; Jason screams and then runs away so fast, that he falls on the floor. Jason is confused at the fact that he is in his class and sat down. He is surrounded by his friends and classmates. Jason finds himself in the situation of his friend putting an ice packet on his knees. Jason felt very confused, last thing he remembered was him running away from the swimming pool. He randomly finds his friend NOAH handing him his favorite ice cream to make him feel better. Jason is later on laid back in bed. Many thoughts and voices start to go through his head... Jason never knew if he was in a long comma from what happened or if he was really living reality at this moment.

Look where being arrogant got you screenplay

By: Nawal Qaddoumi

INT. LIBRARY SHELVES. NIGHT

JASON is angry at the fact that his food is late
JASON now wants to call the delivery man

JASON
(talks on phone angrily)
Hey man where you at?
You've been late for over half an hour
Oh no, no, no. Don't give me any excuses here.
If you don't know how to do your work, then leave it.

JASON rolls his eyes

EXT. ST ANDREWS HIGH SCHOOL. NIGHT

DELIVERY MAN
(talks on phone nervously)
Sir I have already reached... it's just the doors won't open.

INT. LIBRARY SHELVES. NIGHT

JASON
(talks on phone angrily)
Don't make excuses. And I don't like filthy liars.

NOAH
(talking to JASON politely and chill)
Come on man, give the man a break. Their probably fully packed today.

JASON
(talking to NOAH rudely and angrily)
Did I ask for your opinion? No. So, mind your own god damn business. Good. You know how to shut it when you want to

Noah talks to JASON scared without looking at him directly

NOAH
(scared)
Err yeah man sorry man. Won't happen again. Promise man.

JASON
(talking annoyed)
Whatever and stop saying man.

I promise this now… If you don’t come and bring me my food now. Not only will I get you fired, but I will make your life miserable.

NOAH
(talk Worried)
JASON enough with the criticizing the man told you the doors won’t open, it isn’t his fault.

JASON says his next line in a sassy tone

JASON
(talk Angry)
Hold on… are you correcting me?
Look NOAH… We’ve been friends for over 5 years now, and you know that I don’t like people correcting me.
Especially an un worthy, useless, lying human.

NOAH
(confused)
Oh well I’m so sorry I didn’t mean to be such a terrible friend.

JASON laughs

JASON
(talking Rudely)
You call yourself a friend?
That’s funny, last time I checked we were not friends.

NOAH is upset

JASON
(talking confidently)
Whatever loser… I’ll be the mature one here, and go get the food myself.

NOAH
(talking in a sad tone)
You’re correct I’m not your frined, youre too good to be my friend. I’m sorry alright?

JASON
(talking Angrily)
I never asked for an answer back. Bye now.

INT. BLACK. NIGHT

Jason is now Angry.

He decides to leave the Library, and head straight to the main entrance.

INT. BLUE SCHOOL HALLWAY LOCKERS. NIGHT

JASON walks exhausted, he enters from left to screen right. He stands screen right

JASON has gone to the main entrance and could not open the door. He is very shocked and is now roaming the halls and thinking.

JASON
(talking to himself confused)
Okay I'm so puzzled...
How could the doors be locked at 6 pm?
They usually close them at 10.
This is so weird and confusing!
Err this school makes me so mad, I just want to break something!

JASON has given up on opening the doors and decides that he should go and search through the school, to find one of the workers. He decides to check the Janitors closet for him to assist him.

INT. STORAGE ROOM. NIGHT

JASON
(JASON is shocked)
Oh My!

As Jason enters, he finds himself in shock, taking a couple of seconds to process what's going on. He runs so fast he couldn't catch his breath. Jason screams so loudly that he started to hear his own voice echo.

INT. LIBRARY SHELVES. NIGHT

JASON enters from left to screen right AND JASON is running athletically. He is confused, and is mind blown. He now has his hands on his hips.

Jason returned to his friends in shock. To find them acting odd! Especially NOAH. He takes lead in all of this.

JASON
(talking in a very serious way)
Listen up you four; Noah, Clara, Hazel and Ella.
You guys need to split up. we need to roam the school to find help
We can work on this project another time.
Listen being locked in school is a larger problem than finishing a project.

JASON has his hands on his hips again. He is serious again and starts explaining.

JASON
(shocked)
Guys what I just witnessed was unbelievable

All four friends look at each other than at JASON very confused

NOAH
(confused)
What are you even talking about?

JASON
(angry)
You see what I am talking about? You just keep on interrupting me.
You keep doing odd stuff. Why are you like this? You are so unkind.

NOAH is upset

JASON
(talking in an annoyed tone)
You see if you actually let me finish my sentence maybe you would have understood what I was going to say!

NOAH stays silent

JASON
(sarcastically)
Wow see, when you want to think, you can think. Finally, you are silent and not interrupting me.

JASON rolls his eyes

JASON
(puzzled up)
Where was I?
Oh yeah, I remember.
The moment I saw the Janitor all bloody and laid dead on the ground,
Played over and over again in my head.
My head was acting as though it were a fan…
It kept going one way… and coming back.

INT. STORAGE ROOM. NIGHT

JASON is now replaying what happened in his head

JASON could see the JANITOR covered in blood and laid down dead on the floor.

JASON's body was shaking with fear.

JASON finally snaps out of it and says in motivation

JASON
(motivated)
Alright guys we need to split up now... NOAH and CLARA go together, and HAZEL and ELLA go together. End of discussion, No argument what so ever.
Today we aren't friends, were leaders, understood?

JASON
(confidently)
I will be on my own. Hopefully we will manage to make it all out of here alive.

JASON is laughing in a guffaw way.
JASON is thinking to himself

JASON
(confused)
For some reason whenever I say something my friends only nod.
They don't laugh or talk at all.

JASON says out loud

JASON
(unsure)
Text me guys as soon as you get out.

JASON is smiling unhappily and awkwardly. As soon as he was about to leave the room, he looks at his friends, smiling as if it were his last time to see them, then leaves.

INT. SCHOOL HALLWAY 1. NIGHT

Now that JASON was out he had to find a way out of school. He scanned the halls. JASON is running exhaustedly. He ran as if he knew he was going to get out.

INT. SCHOOL HALLWAY 2. NIGHT

30 Minutes Later... JASON is now walking, due to exhaustion and he has given up. JASON is walking steadily

JASON
(regretfully)
This is useless, I won't find anyone here.
I should just try and get back to the main entrance.
The doors may be opened by now. Who knows?

JASON was walking back the last halls of this odd school, when he finds a very odd classroom.

INT. EMPTY CLASSROOM. NIGHT

JASON
(shocked)
Wow this classroom is super empty; It has No chairs, No door, and No tables…
Nothing but an old odd-looking closet.

JASON
(confidently)
So, you know how unwise and reckless I am?
Since I'm this way I'm going to go check this closet out; which has red and black strings stuck on it. I find that odd

JASON is frustrated

JASON

(frustrated)
My frustration was growing… this was because as soon as my dull fingers touched the slippery handle,
My whole body shivered and my eyeballs glimpsed at one another.
Causing me to feel dizzy and accidentally trip and fall in the closet. Was this Karma?

EXT. SOCCER FIELD. DAY

JASON lays down in the middle of the field

JASON
(confused)
Oh Damn, what happened?

JASON is realizing something

JASON
(remembers)
Oh, wait I just fell into a closet and now I've suddenly fallen onto the school’s field.
This is such an odd day.
I’ve got to find a way to get out of here now!

JASON decides to try going right.

INT. BLACK. NIGHT

JASON finds a path leading somewhere mysterious and decides to take it to see where it will lead.

EXT. SCHOOL POOL. NIGHT

JASON finds himself in the schools swimming pool. where he spots a bunch of stuffed animal laying around the pool. JASON laughs because of the fact that they're randomly just on the floor. He is interrupted by his friends whom are filled with blood and walking slowly towards him. He takes a big swallow and blinks twice, quickly; Jason screams and then runs away so fast, that he falls on the floor.

INT. CLASSROOM FRONT. DAY

Jason is confused at the fact that he is in his class and sat down

He is surrounded by his friends and classmates.

JASON finds himself in the situation of his friend putting an ice packet on his knees.

JASON felt very confused, last thing he remembered was him running away from the swimming pool.

He randomly finds his friend NOAH handing him his favorite ice cream to make him feel better.

JASON is confused.

INT. BEDROOM, NIGHT

JASON is laid back in bed.

Many thoughts and voices start to go through JASONS head…

JASON

(talking to himself)

Sometimes we pretend to be something were not. Just because our life is really messed up in reality. We pretend that it is alright, like we have the most perfect life. That if people saw us in a specific way, it means it's the correct way. In the end, I learnt that that is all just fake and lies… having true friendship means you can be true to yourself and with your friend… that you will have a shoulder to lean on. You can't go through life without someone beside you. They are the only ones that can make you be better. The only ones who can lift you when you're done. The only ones who care and won't judge you. If they are nothing like that, if that make you change who you are, and affect you in a bad and different way. If they make you feel like you can't really talk to them and that they won't take it serious… then are they really your friends? Just have a think about this. Not everyone is what they show their selves to be… because each of us are different and unique in our own ways…

I never really knew if I was living reality at this moment or not. It was never clear to me.

But what I knew was that from that day onwards, I decided to start acting differently; I was nicer, friendly, cheerful, and more caring. Especially toward NOAH. I recently just discovered he was going through personality disorder all alone, he didn't have anyone to be beside him. I am his best friend, meaning I need to be there for him and help him with everything he needs. I need to be the shoulder he leans on. No matter how cheesy this is… it won't stop him from being my best friend.